

AT DANVILLE.

The regular meeting of Washburn Lodge, F. & A. M., will be held Wednesday evening, Dec. 13. Work on the Fellowcraft degree.

Col. and Mrs. Nelson Dale left Saturday with Gov. Bell and party for Chicago, where they will attend the annual banquet of the New England Association.

Capt. Lewis Fisher and Miss Fidelity Fisher of St. Johnsbury, were at Frank Stocker's for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Ingalls were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Allison of St. Johnsbury, Thanksgiving day.

Miss Harriet Whittier of Boston spent Thanksgiving with Capt. and Mrs. Waterman at North Danville.

Miss May Wilson was chosen delegate at the Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening to the county convention at St. Johnsbury Center next week, and Miss Ida Page was chosen alternate.

Robert Borland, who has been quite ill, is recovering.

Ray Nutting has gone to Holyoke, Mass., to learn the carpenter's trade.

Miss Frances Harris and Miss Lettie Morse have gone to Waltham, Mass., where they have positions in the Waltham watch factory.

Mr. and Mrs. John Page of St. Johnsbury visited at F. J. Preston's, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Davis, who have been visiting at J. E. Harris', have returned to Worcester, Mass.

Miss Lucy Moore and Miss Emily Davis spent Thanksgiving with Gov. Bell and family at Walden.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church will hold a social Wednesday afternoon and evening, Dec. 13, at the church parlors.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. A. C. McLean, Thursday afternoon.

A very interesting meeting of the Grange was held Tuesday evening of last week, at which Col. Nelson A. Dole gave a report of the meeting of the National Grange, which he attended at Atlantic City, N. J. The next meeting of the society comes Tuesday evening, Dec. 12, when the election of officers will take place.

Remember the auction of personal property Tuesday, Dec. 12, at E. D. Bradley's, St. Johnsbury Center.

Among the larger Thanksgiving parties in town were a gathering of the Dole family at B. G. Farum's; a party at E. E. Bidger's; and at John E. Harris' and George Crane's; at Silas Bovee's, 19 of the family were present, including Mr. and Mrs. Harry Osgood and sons of Concord N. H.; at George Hodgdon's, in addition to the immediate members of the family, were George E. Willey of Lyndon Center, Mr. and Mrs. Warner Willey and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Jennes and son from St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Farrington of West Danville, and William Hodgdon of Morrisville.

Morris Hunt of Bethel is visiting at Silas Bovee's.

Mrs. H. E. Barber has gone to North Conway to visit relatives a few weeks.

John Nunn died at his home near this village Monday evening. He was born in England 73 years ago. He had been a resident of Danville for a great many years.

J. E. Tinker has his holiday goods on display and cordially invites the public to visit the store. He has the finest assortment he has ever carried. Besides his regular line of watches, clocks, silver, jewelry, and cut glass, he has a large variety of Japanese and Austrian china, the Wallace Nutting views of Danville and vicinity, line-a-day books, postal card albums, leather goods, calendars, etc., at prices ranging from five cents up.

BARNET.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Laughlin spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Pringle at St. Johnsbury Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagris and daughter of Waterford were at Julian P. Laughlin's for Thanksgiving.

The Jr. Improvement Club held their meeting Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Flora Clark.

The friends of Miss Lucile Clark gave her a surprise party Thursday evening. Miss Clark left Monday for Warren, N. H., where she will attend school.

Schools began again Monday morning with the same teachers and a full attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Potts and children of St. Johnsbury were at Sherb Moore's for Thanksgiving and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Balch of St. Johnsbury and Jerry Abbott of Woodsville at Mrs. J. D. Abbott's; Mrs. Donahue and Florence Perry of St. Johnsbury passed the day with Miss Laughlin and Miss Perry.

Mrs. E. A. Evans of Woodsville, Miss Bertha J. Stevens of St. Johnsbury, Ernest N. Stevens of Passumpsic were at W. E. Stevens'; Mr. and Mrs. James Gillilan spent the day at North Danville.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Gill of West Lebanon came to Barnet Thursday to attend the wedding of Mrs. Gill's brother, Wilbur Nelson, and Miss Agnes Gibson, which occurred that evening at the home of the bride.

Mrs. Bert Gillilan and two daughters returned Saturday from a two weeks visit with friends in Montpelier.

Mrs. Belle Balch Thayer of Passumpsic spent Thanksgiving at George L. Brown's.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hunt and family of North Haverhill, N. H., spent Thanksgiving at Mrs. Hunt's father's, J. C. Welch.

Mrs. Smart and Mrs. Fox of Rumney, N. H., have been visiting at Dr. Elliot's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brock spent Thanksgiving with their daughter, Mrs. F. O. French, in St. Johnsbury.

Hurd Roy and Miss Virginia Whitehill were married at the parsonage in West Barnet Monday evening by Rev. S. P. Brownell, and left for California, Tuesday, where they expect to reside.

Word has been received here of the death of Willie Nichols in New York City, son of Dr. and the late Lizzie Mattocks Nichols, and grandson of Mrs. Eliza Brock Mattocks.

LYNDON.

Miss Edith Mooney, who is teaching school at West Burke, was at home to spend Thanksgiving.

Clyde Spencer, who teaches in Charleston, is at home on a vacation.

Mary Chayer returned home Wednesday from her school at Sutton.

Grenville Wheeler of Lyndonville and Miss Glenn Leach of Groveton, N. H., were at George Ide's to spend Thanksgiving.

There was a Union Thanksgiving service at the Congregational church Thursday evening with a sermon by Rev. William Shaw.

The Grange held its first meeting at their new hall Saturday evening.

Mrs. S. W. Brown and five children started for Lincoln, Neb., last week Tuesday.

Roy Gage will be greatly missed from the choir of the Congregational church, where he has been leader and soloist for some years. He has an engagement to sing in a quartette at the South church, St. Johnsbury.

Our village schools took a recess from Wednesday till Monday. The term will close Dec. 15.

Wells Quimby had his house wired for electricity last week.

H. P. Bradley and wife are rejoicing over the birth of a grandchild Dec. 3, Elythe Olive, daughter of D. F. and Blanch McPhee.

Remember the auction sale of personal property Tuesday, Dec. 12, at E. D. Bradley's, St. Johnsbury Center.

WELLS RIVER.

Mrs. C. D. Root, who has spent two weeks here with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Munsell, left Monday for her home in Springfield, Mass.

Miss Nellie D. Lee came from Burlington, Wednesday, to spend her Thanksgiving vacation, returning Monday as her school opened.

Oscar Lyons has been having an enforced rest from his studies at Northfield, on account of quite a bad wound on his head, received by some of his fellow students being a little too rough.

A. M. Whitelaw and daughter Agnes went to Boston last week to spend several days with Mrs. Lillian Whitelaw Center. Mrs. Whitelaw has been with her daughter, Mrs. Center, for the past six weeks.

Mrs. Anna D. Leslie of Montpelier was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Graves Thanksgiving and their son Arthur was home from Dartmouth.

Miss Laura Clark returned Monday to Bradford Center for the winter term of school. This is her sixth term as teacher in that district.

Miss Muriel E. Goodwin went Saturday to Wellsley, Mass., to enter Dana Hall, a preparatory school to Wellsley College.

The schools had a recess from Wednesday until Monday, and some of the teachers went home to spend Thanksgiving. Misses Laura and Alice Wilson also went to their home in Corinth.

R. G. Brock spent Thanksgiving with his daughter, Mrs. Goss, in Newport; Miss Holson went to her home in St. Johnsbury; Miss Lotta Belanger spent the day with friends in Fairlee.

Mrs. Clara B. Morris of New Jersey is here to spend the winter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dunning.

S. E. Goss and wife of Newport were in town over Sunday.

Mrs. Julia Smith has not been as well for the last two weeks and a trained nurse has had the care of her. Her daughters, Mrs. Lize Cummings, of Reading, Mass., and Mrs. Josie H. Mayfield of Worcester, Mass., and Mrs. May Larry of Spencer, Mass., were at home last week to see her.

The annual meeting of Col. Preston

Corps for election of officers will occur Wednesday evening, Dec. 6, at 7.30.

Mrs. Harry Austin was taken to the Mary Fletcher hospital, Burlington, for treatment last week.

Nathan Rutledge has sold his milk route to Timothy Bartlett, who took possession Friday.

PASSUMPSIC.

Mrs. John L. Ray and daughter returned home Saturday from a two weeks' stay in Natick, Mass., and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonett, accompanied by Daniel Friend, have come to take possession of the house bought of Patrick Rowan. Mr. Rowan is storing his household goods in Charles Felch's house and Mrs. Rowan will spend the winter with her sister.

The Sunday school voted last Sunday to observe Christmas with a concert and tree to be held Saturday evening, December 23.

The new fiber leather mill started for the first time Monday of this week.

Mrs. Eliza Morse and two daughters, Myrtle and Marjorie, spent part of last week in White River Junction, visiting at G. D. Hawley's.

Ruth Thurston is with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Thurston, sick with measles.

The Y. P. S. C. E. will hold an entertainment in the vestry, Friday evening, Dec. 15, a more detailed account of which will appear later.

Misses Emma, Ellen and Ruth King spent last week in Albany with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Williams.

Miss Cora Whitcher was at home from Wells River for a few days last week.

The Ladies' V. I. S. will hold a sale and entertainment in Randall's hall Friday evening. Refreshments, home-made candy, and aprons, will be on sale at noontime. An album quilt will be sold by tickets, and a patchwork quilt to be disposed of by guessing the number of seeds in a squash. Both the tickets and guesses will be on sale at Pinney's store Thursday and Friday, also at the hall on Friday evening. There will be a short program. Admission to the hall 5 cents.

The concert given Friday evening under the auspices of the Grange was very fine. Miss Bishop of McIndoes read several selections and nothing but praise was heard in her behalf.

J. D. Thyng returned from his Texas trip in time to spend Thanksgiving with his family. He returned to Boston Monday morning to continue his work until Christmas.

Miss Nellie Winn returned to her school in Monroe, Monday, after a short vacation.

RYEGATE.

W. J. Symes celebrated his 80th birthday Saturday by working hard all day in the woods, which is something most men are unable to do, and shows Mr. Symes' disposition as well as his physical condition.

There was no preaching here Sunday on account of the severe storm.

Judge T. A. Meader went to St. Johnsbury Monday afternoon to assume duty at the opening of court Tuesday, J. A. McLam going Tuesday morning as juror.

William Goodfellow and family of Barre spent Thanksgiving with his son-in-law, W. H. Nelson.

Mary S. Beattie returned from her visit in Boston Saturday evening.

The winter term of school commenced Monday with Miss Ethel Morrison as teacher.

The high water has necessitated the suspension of work on the dam at East Ryegate for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Powers spent Thanksgiving with friends in Haverhill, N. H., returning home Saturday.

Mrs. William Thompson was in St. Johnsbury, Friday. Miss Ellen Harris came home with her and remained until Monday.

Edwin McKirahan, Esdon Nelson, May and Raleigh Nelson, were home for the Thanksgiving holidays, returning Monday.

James C. Gibson was a visitor in town Friday and Saturday, having been to Woodsville having his hand dressed, which seems to be doing as well as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Smith were in Wells River, Friday, on business.

GREENSBORO.

The Ladies' Home Circle will give an oyster supper at the chapel dining rooms Tuesday evening, Dec. 12, from 5 to 8 o'clock, after which they have arranged an interesting program for an entertainment in the church. The whole bill will be 75 cents per couple for adults and 15 cents for children.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Straight of Fairfax visited at J. W. Campbell's last week.

Mrs. Mary Rutledge and son Harold of Oxford, N. H., are visiting her brothers in town.

Rev. John Hood is boarding at Dr. Kinney's.

Albert Kinney was home from school last week.

Mrs. Goodrich and Rena are going to Hardwick for the winter.

Mrs. Marion Hunter goes to Iowa soon.

George Spiers and family enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner at Mr. Sternberg's in Stannard.

NORTH DANVILLE.

The next W. C. T. U. meeting will be held with Mrs. L. W. Smith Dec. 7. Topic, "Do Everything." Leader of Devotional meeting, Mrs. G. R. Drew; duet by Mrs. Sanborn and Mrs. Gadapac; roll call; Bible commands; paper, "Temperance from the Stand-point of Economics" Miss Parker, followed by discussion; paper, "Temperance from a Religious Stand-point, Miss Buchanan; temperance clipping, Mrs. Lillian Gadapac; song by Mrs. M. S. Sanborn.

H. W. Varnum and Mrs. Varnum of Cambridge and Guy W. Varnum of Barre spent Thanksgiving at B. G. Varnum's.

Mrs. Laura M. Franklin and children of St. Johnsbury Centre spent Thanksgiving in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bickford visited their uncle, H. N. Clark of South Cabot the first of the week.

At the society meeting of the Free Baptist church the following trustees were elected: William Clement, L. W. Smith, F. E. Bickford.

WE HAVE RECEIVED A FULL LINE OF

PREMIER - BRAND Canned Fruit and Vegetables

which we confidently recommend to our trade.

BROWN BROTHERS, GROCERS.

Real Estate for Sale.

MY HOUSE AND BARN, in good condition, in Paddock Village, being newly shingled and painted; 8 good rooms. Price $1500; $500 down and mortgage for balance.

LARGE FARM, with good two story buildings, southeast from Danville village.

LARGE FARM, with two story house, near North Danville.

GOOD FARM, with two story house, adjoining Sutton village. House in good repair and lawn well cultivated. Good spring water. This water furnishes the village and nets an income to the owner of $50.00 per year.

OTHER FARM PROPERTY at reasonable prices. An excellent chance to buy a home or a farm in easy payments.

TWO STORY HOUSE AND BARN on School street, Paddock Village two tenements. For sale at a low price.

FIRE INSURANCE AGENT.

FRANCIS SWITZER,

4 Charles Street,

St. Johnsbury

"NOT

How Cheap

BUT

How Good."

That's the Slogan of Smith &amp; Son.

◆◆◆◆◆

HANOVER CRACKERS

Are Made and Sold on their MERIT.

THEY ARE THE BEST CRACKER.

100 CRACKERS IN A BLUE BOX.

XMAS GOODS

Received—Largest Assortment Ever Had in Store.

Rings and Chains for Ladies.

Rings and Chains for Gentlemen.

Bracelets, Locketts, Charms, Brooches.

Cuff Buttons and Scarf Pins.

All Kinds of Silverware and Cut Glass.

A. S. HASKINS,

43 Railroad Street,

St. Johnsbury, Vermont.

R-1513

Q-779